

Senate Bill No. 824

CHAPTER 502

An act to amend Sections 12071, 12074, 12077, and 12082, of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor September 24, 2003. Filed with Secretary of State September 24, 2003.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 824, Scott. Firearms.

Existing law generally regulates licensed firearms dealers.

This bill would authorize firearms dealers to require any agent who handles, sells, or delivers firearms to obtain and provide to the dealer a certificate of eligibility from the department.

Existing law requires firearms dealers to record specified information pertaining to firearms transfers in a register or record of electronic transfer.

This bill would additionally require the firearms dealer's salesperson to record the salesperson's certificate of eligibility number in the register or record of electronic transfer. The bill would also require the dealer to record on the register or record of electronic transfer, the date a handgun or other firearm is delivered by the dealer.

Existing law provides for parties to a firearms transaction who are not licensed firearms dealers to conduct the transaction through a licensed firearms dealer.

This bill would make other conforming changes.

Existing law authorizes a firearms dealer to charge a fee not to exceed $10, and a fee due the Department of Justice, for processing a sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm pursuant to provisions authorizing parties who are not firearms dealers to conduct the transaction through a firearms dealer.

This bill would prohibit the dealer from charging any fee in addition to those described in connection with the transaction.

This bill would also provide that if both this bill and AB 161 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2004, and AB 161 repeals Section 12071 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 911 of the Statutes of 2002, and this bill is enacted after AB 161, the amendments to that section proposed by this bill would not become operative, and the repeal of that section proposed by AB 161 would be given effect.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

While maintaining muzzle awareness, that is, the firearm is pointed in a safe direction, preferably down at the ground, and trigger discipline, that is, the trigger finger is outside of the trigger guard and along side of the handgun frame, at all times, the handgun recipient shall correctly and safely perform the following:

- (V) Open the loading gate and unload the revolver.
- (VI) Visually and physically inspect each chamber to ensure that the revolver is unloaded.

SEC. 5. Section 12082 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12082. (a) A person shall complete any sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm through a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 in accordance with this section in order to comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072. The seller or transferor or the person loaning the firearm shall deliver the firearm to the dealer who shall retain possession of that firearm. The dealer shall then deliver the firearm to the purchaser or transferee or the person being loaned the firearm, if it is not prohibited, in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 12072. If the dealer cannot legally deliver the firearm to the purchaser or transferee or the person being loaned the firearm, the dealer shall forthwith, without waiting for the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072, return the firearm to the transferor or seller or the person loaning the firearm. The dealer shall not return the firearm to the seller or transferor or the person loaning the firearm when to do so would constitute a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 12072. If the dealer cannot legally return the firearm to the transferor or seller or the person loaning the firearm, then the dealer shall forthwith deliver the firearm to the sheriff of the county or the chief of police or other head of a municipal police department of any city or city and county who shall then dispose of the firearm in the manner provided by Sections 12028 and 12032. The purchaser or transferee or person being loaned the firearm may be required by the dealer to pay a fee not to exceed ten dollars ($10) per firearm, and no other fee may be charged by the dealer for a sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm conducted pursuant to this section, except for the applicable fee that the Department of Justice may charge pursuant to Section 12076. Nothing in these provisions shall prevent a dealer from charging a smaller fee. The fee that the department may charge is the fee that would be applicable pursuant to Section 12076, if the dealer was selling, transferring, or delivering a firearm to a purchaser or transferee or person being loaned a firearm, without any other parties being involved in the transaction.

(b) The Attorney General shall adopt regulations under this section to do all of the following:

(1) Allow the seller or transferor of the person loaning the firearm, and the purchaser or transferee or the person being loaned the firearm, to complete a sale, loan, or transfer through a dealer, and to allow those persons and the dealer to comply with the requirements of this section and Sections 12071, 12072, 12076, and 12077 and to preserve the confidentiality of those records.

(2) Where a personal handgun importer is selling or transferring a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to comply with clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 12072, to allow a personal handgun importer's ownership of the pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person being sold or transferred to be recorded in a manner that if the firearm is returned to that personal handgun importer because the sale or transfer cannot be completed, the Department of Justice will have sufficient information about that personal handgun importer so that a record of his or her ownership can be maintained in the registry provided by subdivision (c) of Section 11106.

(3) Ensure that the register or record of electronic transfer shall state the name and address of the seller or transferor of the firearm or the person loaning the firearm and whether or not the person is a personal handgun importer in addition to any other information required by Section 12077.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a dealer who does not sell, transfer, or keep an inventory of handguns is not required to process private party transfers of handguns.

(d) A violation of this section by a dealer is a misdemeanor.
